Q22 – The things I like most about Green Lanes

In summary, parents feel that their child/children are well taught and are happy at school. Parents like the community feel of the school and find staff friendly and approachable. Parents feel the school is inclusive and their child/children are happy at Green Lanes. Parents feel the school is run well and families are supported well. Parents feel there is a good relationship between pupils and teachers. Parents feel there is a good variety of subjects and communication in general is good.

Q23 – The school could be even better if

In summary, some parents feel communication could be improved between teachers and home and would like clarification on the best way to communicate with the class teacher. Some parents would like to see face to face events as they were pre-covid (parent consultations), school plays etc. Parents would like more personalised comments on school reports or on BoomReader. Some parents feel there is too much homework set to be done using a laptop / iPad and would prefer hardcopy worksheets.
